5.6. Breaches of Policy and Misconduct

5.6.1. Students:

- 5.6.1.1. Alleged breaches of this policy must be referred to the UOW Student Services Division for review.
- 5.6.1.2. Where an alleged breach of this policy is notified to the UOW Student Services Division, they may seek to resolve the matter informally via existing social media communication channels (e.g. a private Facebook message to the relevant Facebook page administrator).
- 5.6.1.3. For serious or continued alleged breaches, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken in accordance with relevant UOW misconduct guidelines or procedures, applicable policies and the defined rules of the relevant social media platform. The UOW Student Services Division may also refer the matter to UOW's Governance and Legal Unit for further review and action.

5.6.2. Staff and Others in the UOW Pulse and UniClubs Community:

- 5.6.2.1. Alleged breaches of this policy must be referred to the UOW Pulse Marketing Department for review, and escalation where required, to the Staff member's supervisor and UOW Pulse People and Culture Department.
- 5.6.2.2. Where a breach of this policy has occurred, the UOW Pulse Marketing Department with the People & Culture Department may seek to resolve the matter informally and directly with the member of staff and their supervisor.
- 5.6.2.3. For serious or continued alleged breaches, appropriate, disciplinary action will be taken in accordance with relevant UOW Pulse and UniClubs misconduct guidelines or procedure, applicable policies, enterprise agreements or contracts and the defined rules of the relevant social media platform.

5.7. Breach of Law

- 5.7.1. Where inappropriate use under this policy constitutes a breach of any law, legal action may also be taken by UOW Pulse.

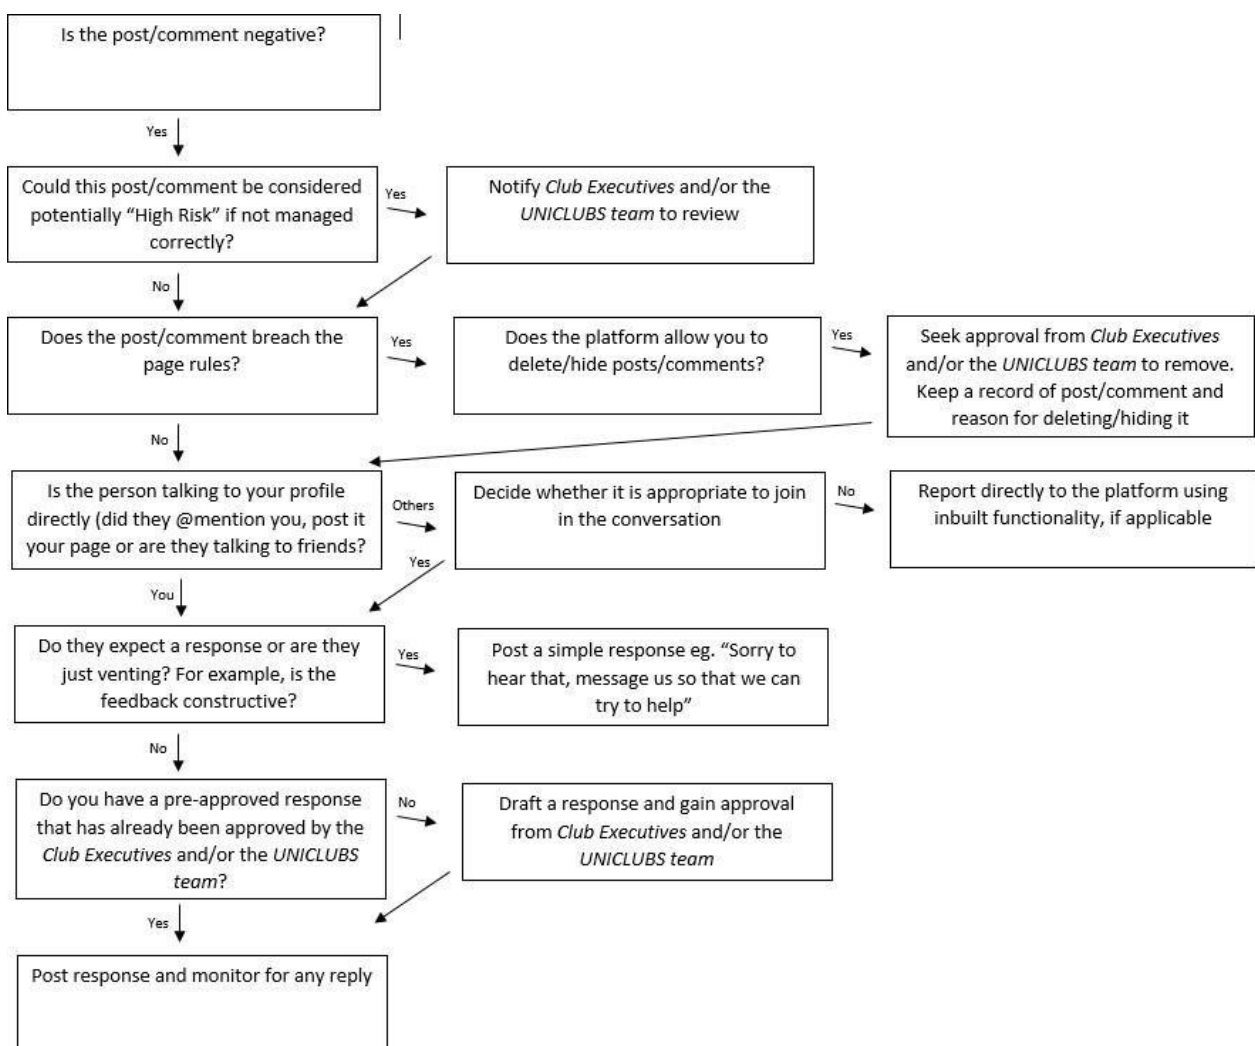

6 Risk Mitigation

6.1. Admin Roles

6.1.1. Due to the regularity of role changes within UniClubs, to ensure the sustainability of Facebook and Instagram pages and groups the official UniClubs alias profile must be made an Admin of any UniClub pages or groups.

6.2. Assessing Negative or Risky Content

6.2.1. The nature of social media is that it is not possible to predict the comments that might be made. For this reason preparation and processes are critical. The following risk mitigation guidelines aim to provide a structure to the assessment of comments made about or to affiliated UniClubs, UOW Pulse and UOW on social media. This is to ensure that actions or responses are timely, authorised and clear. This process will be undertaken by the page Administrators when they have observed, received or been notified of a negative post or comment, either on an official UniBrand, UOW Pulse business, Tenant or Clubs and Societies page.
